UNITED STUDENT MOVEMENT OF OAKWOOD COLLEGE
HUNTSVILLE, ALABAMA

ELDER C. T. RICHARDS

"A consistent life characterized by the meekness of Christ is a power in the world."

—E. G. White

With sincerity of purpose we dedicate the 1952 Acorn to one whom we feel is indeed a teacher sent from God, an advisor whose counsel comes from God, a shepherd who is himself led by God, a man who has placed himself in the hand of God, a Christian after the very heart of God. All who know him have formed the opinion that he walks as though he were in the atmosphere of heaven. His faithfulness in study has gained the confidence of every student whom he has taught. In times of decision his timely admonition, "No deviation from strict integrity can meet God's approval," plus the very obviousness of his own moral integrity, has caused many to decide for the right.

PROUDLY WE DEDICATE

In the class he is the teacher, the example of the man of God; in the home he is the father, leading and protecting his house in the fear of the Lord. His gravity and consistent piety is suggestive of one who is wrapt in a state of serene quietude with God. His influence for good and the inspiration to do good that he provokes in us is of inestimable value. Because he has commanded our respect, captured our admiration and attracted our love by his magnanimous spirit we hereby dedicate this vivid portrayal of one year in our lives behind the Oaks, the 1952 Acorn, to Elder C. T. Richards.

HERE WE SPENT OUR HAPPY DAYS

"To thee our dear Oakwood
To thee we shall ever sing,
For decades thou hast stood Thy name shall ever ring.
Here we've spent our happy days
So we love to sing thy praise,
And wherever we may be We'll always be true to thee
Our worthy dear old O.C."

O. B. EDWARDS

. . . . First The

The broad and lofty expanse of the mighty oak with all its resplendent verdure has its beginning in something infinitely smaller than itself. The pride of the oak is humbled before the force of life that is gendered by the death of a tiny acorn beneath the sod. This tiny medium submits itself to the forces of nature at whose hands it dies for the impartation of life to something infinitely greater. In giving its life, it makes it possible for something else to have life; the mighty oak.

In essence, the administrative body and faculty of Oakwood College are comparable to the tiny acorn. Through a spirit of self sacrificing benevolence they dedicate their lives within the sod of Oakwood's halls to gender life to a gigantic oak whose limbs, the Oakwood student body, are animated by a perpetual vitality. This spark of life is carried through all the activities of the school.

Standing tall and stalwart to beat back the fiery darts of discouragement, to chagrin the baleful effects of bitterness, and to ease the sting of impromptu failures, this vanguard nourishes the tiny seedlings as they are exposed to the light of day.

Acorn

"There is life in a seed,
there is power in the soil":
As tiny feet as acorns are planted in the soil of life and watered with Christian Education, they grow and develop physically, mentally, and spiritually.
As tender plants, they grow up in the beauty of holiness, noble in body, mind and spirit, prepared for faithful service as they flourish as giant oaks in the field for God.

ADMINISTRATION

President's Message

Another school year has come to an end, and from these college halls, your city of refuge, you go out into a world that is seeking for peace, but which threatens to break into pieces.

The gravity of the situation which faces the world bids me caution you to think soberly, speak wisely and live righteously.

You have been taught that:

"The greatest want of the world is the want of men,—men who will not be bought or sold; men who in their inmost souls are true and honest; men who do not fear to call sin by its right name; men whose conscience is as true to duty as the needle to the pole; men who will stand for the right though the heavens fall."

"The imperative need of today, overshadowing all other unnumbered and urgent needs, is firmer and stronger character, higher integrity, broader spiritual vision, unimpeachable and unshakable fidelity . . ."

We send you forth in this crises hour in answer to the World's need—Men and Women of dynamic faith.

O. B. EDWARDS, Dean of the College

Noble in spirit, broad in mind, sympathetic in understanding, diligent in business—the chief coordinator of student body and faculty, O. B. Edwards, who has the intricate task of directing the educational program of the institution.

L. E. FORD, Business Manager

Calm in demeanor, patient in spirit, persistent in work, deliberate in business—L. E. Ford the business manager of the college, has the gigantic task of balancing the budget, equipping staffing, and providing finances for every department of the college

ROBERTA C. EDWARDS, Registrar

Quiet in manner, friendly in spirit, consistency in business, faithful in service—the registrar, Roberta C. Edwards, whose duty it is to attend to student admissions to the institution, registration, and filing all academic records

T. T. FRAZIER, Treasurer

Sincerity in purpose, loyalty to duty, honesty in spirit, precision in business—the treasurer, T. T. Frazier, whose duty it is to receive and disburse funds, keep records of equipment and supplies, and finances of the institution.

The school homes—the hub of life on the campus. Here the students live, love, work, and enjoy life together. Here they meet God in the morning and evening devotions. Here they develop self reliance, self control, tolerance, and courtesy.

Here they meet friends and form acquaintances that will always be remembered. From the rising bell 'til lights out, the student leads a rousing life that he will never forget. For him, this is the life!

The FACULTY

As massive tap roots that pierce deeply and grip the soil, absorb and assimilate life to the tree, so the faculty serves the student, the developing oak. They pierce deeply the resources of wisdom and impart a wealth of knowledge, and principles of truth necessary for the progress and development of the tender plant, the pupil.

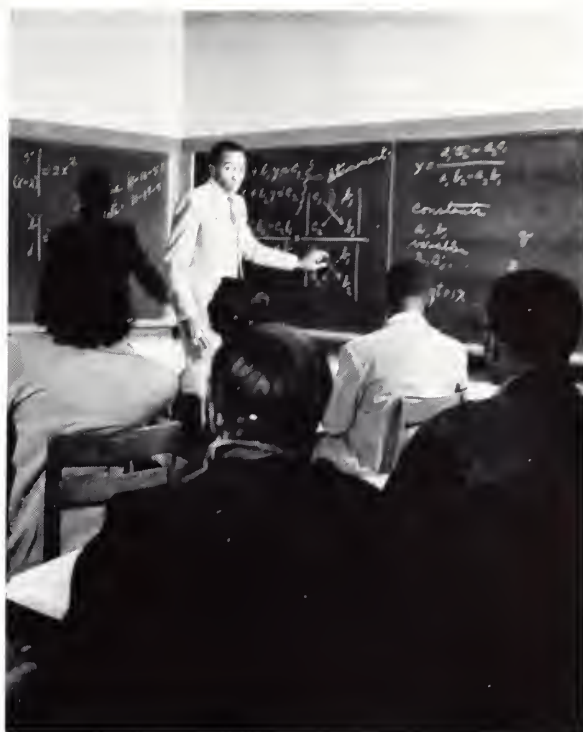

The faculty serves as an anchor, and a source of nutriment for the growing plant.

VIVACIOUS DIVERSIONS

In panoramic view they slide through the memory leaving a pleasant glow of happiness—our vivacious diversions. The thrilling voice of an artist, the stirring voice of a lecturer, the lore of the clubs, and laughter of the parties and socials fill school life with cheerful activity. Vivacious diversions from reading, 'riting, and 'rithmetic. Here they play!

I steal an hour from study care,
and hie me away to woodland scene,
Where wanders the stream with waters of green. . ."

"God is a Spirit; and they that worship Him must worship Him in Spirit and in truth."

Amid the great perplexities of life the enemy of souls has thrust a contrivance into the atmosphere of man's everyday life that is bent toward undermining the loftiest citadel on this terrestrial sphere, the mind of man. Through fervent devotion which is impelled by a will to do righteously which literally overwhelms the tenets of evil, those who walk Oakwood's thousand acres find peace and a happy escape from the trying of their souls by the extremes of sin.

“KEEP LOOKING UP”

"Life has its joys and sorrows, too,
Sometimes the mists will hide our view;
If we would hope and strength renew,
There's just one thing to do:

Keep looking up, thy God is still the same today
Keep looking up, He will not fail thee come what may Keep looking up, the darkest cloud will roll away
So do not doubt, but keep on looking up!

And Then . . .

"True education is . . . harmonious development . . ."

After the foundation has been laid, the wise master builder is prepared to build.

Since balance is the desired element in every undertaking, ample provision has been made to effect balance among the three constituents of our education: namely, study, work, and play.

Possessed of the threefold armour of determination, effort, and perseverance, we forge ahead cleaving a path to harmonious development leaving in our wake, monuments to achievement.

ENTICING EDUCATION

"Higher than the highest human thought can reach is God's Ideal . . ."

For an education complete in its scope—sound in its principles, and eternal in its purpose, seek it, in the shadow of the Oaks.

The object of this education is to prepare the student to reflect fully the light and knowledge of his Creator. This education inspires obedience, honor, integrity, and purity which will make them a positive force for reflection of light in a chaotic world of darkness.

SCHOOL HEALTH

The school maintains a health service department on the campus which is directed by Mrs. Mosely. Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Stafford assist in the nursing service.

The annual physical examinations for students were given by Doctors C. A. Dent and J. R. Ford of Riverside assisted by the campus nursing staff for the purpose of diagnosing, promoting, and maintaining better health among the students.

The Oak

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course . . ."

Like a giant Oak towering in testimonial of its struggle for life having successfully battled against the adverse forces of nature, the seniors of 1952 make their bid for service.

Stretching forth their arms,—arms laden with intellectual nourishment for the sustenance of others who, like the tiny acorn, seek a way to the heights, they bid farewell to the place where life was learned, for the place where life can be served.

Each step in the cycle of development,—the acorn, the sproutling, and then the Oak—tells a wonderful story of steps to success. The story can be lived out in your life at the place where acorns into Oak trees grow . . . OAKWOOD!

Handwritten notes in the top left corner, partially obscured by a dark scribble.

"Mighty oaks from little acorns grow"

From a tiny seed, an acorn, a mere child trotting off to school with book and slate in hand, we have the magnificent oak towering in all its splendor, the finished product, a graduate, candidate for a degree, a candidate for unselfish Christian service in a world of dire need.

JOSEPH T. STAFFORD
Principal of the Oakwood Academy

The administration of the Oakwood College Academy is dedicated to the sublime task of character building for Christian youth.

Only through a program of Christ-Centered—youth-centered education may such a task be completed successfully. Such a program must of necessity conform to every specification of the Divine pattern which encompasses every existence possible to man.

Integration of the personality through the harmonious development of the mental, physical, and spiritual powers is the controlling purpose of the Academy.

Various educational experiences provided for the students are designed to prepare them for the joy of service in this world, and the higher joy of service in the world to come. This, therefore, embraces more than a knowledge of books. At Oakwood Academy, the student is given the opportunity both to discover and experience the fundamental fact of all true education—that is to know and understand the will of God, and to apply the same to his daily life.

A troubled and perplexed world needs courageous Christian men and women who are willing to dedicate their lives to the service of others.

May each student of the Oakwood College Academy so relate himself to God's divine plan in order that he may occupy his rightful place.

A GUIDING LIGHT TO A LIFE OF SERVICE

TRAINS LEADERS TODAY FOR SERVICE TOMORROW

Oakwood College stands as a beacon reflecting light—throwing a radiant beam in a span of darkness, charting a progressive path through preparation to service.

Oakwood faces a new day of progress and development—a day of raising standards in educational advancement and physical expansion of the school plant. With financial backing from the General Conference and the supporting conferences, the College Board is fostering an expansive program which includes erection of buildings, advanced training for teachers, and improvement in staff organization which will meet accrediting standards.

A bigger and better Oakwood is being designed for you. It is your College. Send for your bulletin and application blank today! Get on the beam of progress, for a life of service here at Oakwood!

It is people like you that make our departure from D.C. so full of interest & regretful. May the world be good to you.

Dear Pearl,
I wish so much success in happiness
through the coming years. Always a friend, Esther Cartwright

Dear Pearl,
I wish so much
success in happiness
through the coming years. Always a friend, Esther Cartwright

Dear Pearl,
May your eyes your smiles, and your ambitions ever be with you.
James Tillman (wrote "I")

Dear Pearl,
I wish so much
success in happiness
through the coming years. Always a friend, Esther Cartwright

Dear Pearl,
I wish so much
success in happiness
through the coming years. Always a friend, Esther Cartwright

Dear Pearl
I want you to know that I've enjoyed every moment of our friendship, especially as your roommate. I hope I would too much to put up with. I hope to see you sometime in the future. I wish you much success in your nursing career.
Sincerely,
Sharon
